A floor plan diagram showing a dining area on the left and a family room on the right. The dining area is partially enclosed by a thick black line representing a wall. The family room is a large open space. An optional rear porch is shown as a rectangular area at the top of the family room. A curved line indicates a doorway or opening between the dining area and the family room. The text 'DINING' is in the lower-left, 'FAMILY' is in the lower-center, and 'OPT. REAR PORCH' is in the upper-center.
